

Free Lifesaving Skills

CPR/ Narcan Administration/ Stop the Bleed

In person skills training with an online learning component for

American Heart Association CPR Certification

In addition to CPR certification students will learn how to properly administer Naloxone (Narcan) and ways to control life-threatening traumatic bleeding using simple techniques and equipment

Classroom session

Tuesday, June 4, 2024 8:00 am -12:00 noon

Belmont Fire Headquarters 299 Trapelo Rd.

The online portion must be completed prior to the class

Please email to receive more information and sign up before May 24th.

fireadmin@belmont-ma.gov

This community training is made possible by through funds received from the Opioid Abatement Grant